MINISTRY OF CULTURE, GOVT. OF INDIA

....Call for Papers

Dear Sir/Madam

We feel immense pleasure in inviting you to the “National Conference on Community Participation in Strengthening and Development of Public Library Services” to be held on 28-29, June 2014 at Conference Hall, PMSSS, Pudukkottai, TamilNadu, India. Sponsored by Raja Rammohan Roy Library Foundation, Ministry of Culture, Govt. of India.

The Two-day conference will focus on the need to create an enabling environment for strengthening and development of public library services by community participation, to promote and upscale existing public libraries initiatives in India, and to encourage the development of new public libraries programmes. This can be done by multiple stakeholder groups, namely researchers, librarians, social volunteers, publishers, technologists, policymakers and community taking into account their concerns and views and providing a platform for them to advocate for a common cause. The conference will provide a unique opportunity to stakeholders, researchers and community to pool their insights, identify and discuss key public libraries related issues in the country and create a roadmap for strengthening and development of public libraries and its services.

Original research papers or abstracts, contributions based on practice, theoretical and empirical research articles covering issues, case studies, techniques and strategies in various aspects of development issues as per themes are invited for presentation and publication in the conference. The conference is open to all Library and Information Science professionals. The academicians/ researchers/NGOs /publishers/ writers interested in this conference may also attend. Registration is restricted to only 100 participants on "first-cum-first serve basis". Registration with abstract(s) can be sent by email at tnsroindia@gmail.com.
